+Call to Worship

L: Come, all who feel afraid, uncertain, or hidden behind locked doors.

P: We come seeking the presence of the One who meets us in our fear.

L: Jesus does not wait for perfect faith; He steps into our doubts and brings peace.

P: We worship the Lord who shows scars, offers proof, and turns doubters into witnesses.

L: Open your hearts, for Christ is here.

All: Peace be with us. Let us worship the Lord!

Opening Prayer

Gracious God, many of us come today carrying fear, doubt, and questions that sometimes lock our hearts. Yet You do not wait for us to be ready. Just as You walked through locked doors to meet the disciples, You come to us in our uncertainty, offering peace.

Meet us in our doubts. Show us Your scars. Remind us that faith grows not from perfection, but from Your presence. Help us to trust You when we cannot see, to follow when the way is unclear, and to open our doors, our hearts, and our lives to You.

Lord Jesus, transform our fears into faith, our questions into worship, and our hiding into courage. Fill us with Your peace as we gather to honor You.

We pray in the name of the One who meets the fearful and the doubting—Jesus Christ. Amen.
